

Hartford Republican

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING.

JO. B. ROGERS, Editor and Proprietor.

FRIDAY, MARCH 24, 1893.

EX-COMMISSIONER of Pensions, General Green B. Baum, will practice law at Chicago.

THE young ladies of Rockport, Ind., have a Cooking Club. They are preparing for matrimony in dead earnest.

THE Kentucky press still speaks favorably of the appointment of Dr. J. S. Coleman, of this city, as Consul to Havana.

THE Rockport (Ind.) Journal is a welcome visitor to our exchange table. The Journal is a neatly executed, well edited, new paper and is quite popular in Southern Indiana as it deserves to be.

It is pretty safe to say that no man should go where he would be ashamed to die and that he should do nothing in the act of which he would be ashamed to die. We hope every voter in Hartford will remember that on May 24.

SCULPTOR HARRY KIRTON and Miss Theo Ruggles, the popular girl sculptor of Boston, are producing in clay, figures of an ideal man and woman of a purely American type from measurements furnished from 10,000 different persons. The statues will be exhibited at the World's Fair.

GOVERNOR BROWN has given out his reply to ex-Governor Buckner, and the two in connection make "mighty interesting reading" for the average Kentuckian. What's the matter with the Democrats anyhow? But it is said, you know, that "whom the Lord would destroy he first makes mad."

THE Hartford Lecture Club expects to have at their next entertainment about the 13th of May no less a man and a speaker than Henry Watterson, the veteran journalist and popular lecturer. Mr. Watterson will draw a large crowd to Hartford and it is to be earnestly desired that the Club secure him at once and so announce.

SOMEONE once said that there are "men who starve their children to help the brewer to fatten his horses," and in a few weeks the good citizens of Hartford will be asked to lend their suffrage to make it possible for some "men to starve their children to help the saloon-keeper fatten his horses." The man who so disposes of his suffrage will make a very great mistake.

THE great Peter Cooper is credited with the following rare bit of common sense: "In all towns where a newspaper is published every man should advertise even if nothing more than telling his name and the business he is in. It not only benefits the advertiser but lets the people at a distance know that the town you reside in has a prosperous class of business men. As the seed is sown so it is recompensed. Never pull down the sign if you do business, for it often indicates that your grip commercially is broken. The judicious advertiser will receive $10 for every one invested in the columns of a local newspaper."

YOUNG man did you ever think what a great responsibility rests upon you? The world is controlled by young men. The tendency in all the branches of trade, in all official positions is not toward age, but toward youth. Study well the position you occupy in society, the influence you wield over your associates and your country's welfare. Let no act of yours entangle a fellow mortal in danger either moral or physical. You are strong, strive to protect the weak; you are buoyant, lift up the weary; you are virtuous, keep yourself unspotted and do all you can to keep others so. You may not be easily tempted, but a neighbor perhaps is not so fortunate, protect him. You are a ruler for you are a voter, do not tarnish your fair escutcheon by assisting in what is wrong. You may have just reached your majority, then by all means be sure you cast your first vote on the side of right, and it will be easier for you to do so again. And now, young man, if you are in Hartford, and there are many of you here, be sure that you have the approval of your own conscience and the smile of God's approbation when you vote on the whisky question May the 2d.

A Citizen Speaks.
HARTFORD, KY., Mar. 21, '93.
EDITOR REPUBLICAN.—I have long had a desire to express my opinion of some things, and if you will give me space in your columns, I will deliver myself of a thought or so relative to things, which, according to my way of thinking, are noticed too little by the public prints.

First. In his daily walks to and from his business, the observant citizen has not failed to be impressed by the crowds of idlers along our streets. And when I say idlers, I mean idlers—fellows who, if a job is offered them, will receive it almost as a personal insult, while at the same time he doubtless is unaware where he will find the wherewith to minister to the gnawings of the inner man or the place whereon to lay his worthless form for sleep. Yes, the majority of them are children of Ham, but the children of Jephtha are sandwiched along sufficiently to make up a picture somewhat variegated. If a few of these eyesores could be put up and sold somewhat on the Missouri plan it would be a great relief to a long-suffering people, for the public necessity must provide for them by furnishing convenient meat-houses and chicken-roosts for their midnight forages. If these fellows who are so conspicuously out of a job could be worked on the streets it would not be quite so bad. These loafers cannot offer the excuse that there is nothing to do. There is something for every willing honest hand to do and he who complains for want of employment is nothing more nor less than lazy.

Second. There are a few classes of folks that infest respectable society who little dream how obnoxious they, or rather their practices, are. For one, I mean the fellow who puffs the smoke from his loud cigar full in your face. Of course you know he's smart but he's afraid you've forgotten it and so he advertises himself with his cigar in a way that may be satisfactory to himself but which is quite disgusting to other people. Next, I wish to say that I have a very poor opinion of the woman who says she likes for her gentlemen friends to smoke in her presence, and I have a still poorer opinion of the gentleman friend who does it. Well, there, too, is the wax-chewing crowd, and a most uninviting crowd it is. Not long ago I was at church and in the back of the house were three boys, who would like to be called young gentlemen, each of whom throughout a great part of the service kept his jaws grinding away on a chew of wax. Now, it may have pleased the boys, but there were other folks there who were not pleased.

There is another creature whom I detest and it is the unmanly woman. Did you ever see her? If not, you only have to keep your eyes open to do so. The man who stares crazily at a woman who passes along the street as though she were the last woman he ever expected to see, is very deserving of being lynched, but thanks to the power that distributes the evils to mortals there are not very many of this class in our town.

Third. I am of the opinion that the citizens of the town of Hartford pay sufficient money in the way of taxes to merit better walks than we now have, and in this opinion I believe I am sustained by the judgment of a majority of our people. But my opinion I find not the opinion of the people does not suffice to better the condition of the town in this regard.

Fourth. I am in favor of a town ordinance against hogs, dogs and cats on the streets, and there are a great many other things, some of which I am in favor of and others of which I oppose, and still others about which I don't care a copper, but I haven't time to enumerate them now; perhaps I may do so in the future. Yours in hope of reform,
A CITIZEN.

WHEREAS, An order has been made by the Ohio County Court for the purpose of taking the vote of the citizens in the corporate limits of the town of Hartford, Ky., as to whether intoxicating liquors shall be sold in said town, we the members of the Adelpian Literary Society of Hartford College, in meeting assembled, do most humbly, earnestly and respectfully submit the following to those concerned in this matter:

RESOLVED, That we, members of the Adelpian Literary Society and students of the College, love and cherish our Institution of learning, which is doing so much for moral and intellectual culture and cultivation of young men and women throughout the country, and that many of us desire to continue our studies in said Institution, believing that every opportunity is afforded here now for the most extensive development of manhood and womanhood.

RESOLVED, That we most humbly and respectfully beg of the good people of Hartford that they use all honorable means to protect the young from every influence that tends to destroy virtue, to paralyze manhood and render homes miserable.

RESOLVED, That we fail to see one single benefit that would accrue to the people of Hartford from the sale of liquor.

RESOLVED, That we ask this in behalf of the fair name of Hartford, our College, and the name of our God.

RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Society, and that a copy be presented to each of the Hartford papers for publication.

What is the Matter With Free Trade? [ROCKPORT (IND.) JOURNAL.]
A prediction from the South Bend Times, a Democratic paper: The Times desires to be placed on record as predicting that when the Tariff is revised by a Democratic Congress and approved by a Democratic President, it will be found to have been done in the lines laid down in the Democratic platforms of 1884 and 1888 and steadfastly advocated in these columns, and that the Free Trade plank in the Chicago platform of 1892 will be disregarded as impracticable. The New Albany Ledger tactically concurs in this opinion, while the Atlanta Journal, Hon. Hoke Smith's paper, goes further and says that the Protective Tariff cannot be abandoned, but must be retained indefinitely.

DO YOU KNOW

Why R. Tracy uses so many stamps? That Will Fair is a first-class schemer?

That marriage is a failure with all bachelors?

What will cure a headache in the morning?

That Hartford is proud of her bachelor lawyers?

That Henry Watterson will visit Hartford soon?

That "Bat" Nall looks more like a Chinaman every day?

That J. E. Matthews is as steady as a Waterbury watch?

That the Hartford Lecture Club is a grand institution?

That Silas Griffin thinks he is the smartest boy in school?

That the whiskyites will be snowed under the 2d of May?

That the writer of this column doesn't know anything?

That the R. E. C.'s will give a nice entertainment to-night?

That Judge Glenn is in favor of Free Delivery in the country?

That a certain young man likes to walk out to the Water Mill?

That the Owensboro girls have formed an "old maid's" club?

That the wedding that was to be has been postponed indefinitely?

That the girls say Jim Williams is not handsome but awful good?

That the attendance at Sunday School should be larger than it is?

That the Baptist Church is the center of attraction to a Hartford boy?

That the Adelpian Society had an interesting meeting last Friday night?

That E. V. Milligan's nose looks like the side-walk out to Judge Walker's?

That a negro girl in Indiana died of erysipelas, caused by wearing brass earrings?

That the R. E. C.'s are mad at the "This That and Other" man of the Herald?

That Hartford has more pretty girls than any other town in Kentucky?

That a boy looks bad when "the" girl answers his card "I can't see you to-night?"

That a young society boy walks out the Beaver Dam road quite frequently?

That triplets recently born in Indiana had an aggregate weight of twenty-one pounds?

That Will Schapmire has settled down and says he "just won't" spend money for anything?

That a young lady said there were "some of the ugliest boys at the College she had ever seen?"

That the man who smiles in a funeral procession is not heartless, but thinks that it is much nicer than howling it Zionward?

Trustees' Head Ticks.
State Superintendent Thompson has issued a letter to the County Superintendents, in which he says:

"I call your attention to the following matters:

"I send you this week a full supply of census blanks (for you and trustees), poll sheets and election notices.

"Please to furnish each Chairman of Board of Trustees two copies of the blank for District census, with directions to duplicate his return to you and keep a copy for reference. It will aid you materially in the work next year, and will obviate the necessity of applying to the County Superintendent every time complaint is made that somebody has been improperly reported.

"These blanks ought to have been sent a month ago to some of the counties, where it is difficult to distribute them and requires much time; but I have delayed sending them with the hope of having them conform to new provisions in the law. These new provisions, however, have not become a law, and I am compelled to conform to the old conditions."

These blanks will be forwarded to Trustees as soon as possible, probably not however, before the first of April, as they have not arrived. Trustees however, can take the Census April 1st, if so desiring, retaining the report until the blanks are out, on which to transcribe the report and return to this office. Great care should be taken to report all the children accurately and thus avoid secondary reports, which are apt to come in too late. Be sure the work is done completely and follow instructions to the letter in keeping a copy of the Census Report besides copying it in the Trustees Record Book. The close and careful observance of these directions will obviate much unnecessary confusion and delay. Respectfully,
JO. B. ROGERS, Co. Supt.

We are Known Abroad.
Below is a letter from a former citizen of Ohio county, Mr. W. G. Benton, Manager of the Western Division of the American Press Association, at San Francisco, California. Mr. Benton has many friends here who are glad to know he is winning for himself a name and fame worthy of his high talents.

The letter is as follows:
SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 16, 1893.
MR. JO. B. ROGERS, Hartford, Ky.

DEAR SIR: Some three years ago, my nephew, Sam B. Snell, subscribed for the REPUBLICAN for me, and paid one year's subscription I understood at the time. I desire the paper continued, as it is the only means I have outside of occasional personal letters from some of my relatives thereabout, of getting news of my old home and surrounding country. But I do not want the paper at the expense of my nephew nor the publisher. Kindly advise me if there is any money due for the subscription.

I take great pleasure in noting the evidences of prosperity, and the permanency of the old town of Hartford, which seems to be holding on much in the same way it has gone for many moons, with an occasional indication of progress.

With kindest regards for my old friends and acquaintance of Ohio County, I remain, Very truly,
W. G. BENTON.

For the equipment of one scene to be used in "The MacKaye Spectatorium," at Chicago, The Columbian Celebration Company has imported from the plantations of the Boston Fruit Company at Jamaica, W. I., five carloads of the flora of the tropics. This will all be used in the scene representing the landing of Columbus. It is said all the other scenes presented will be equipped with like thoroughness.

CENTRAL GROVE.

Mar. 20.—As I have not seen anything from this place for some time, I thought I would write.

Health in this neighborhood is very good.

Farmers are busy preparing for their crops.

The exhibition at this place last Sunday night, was enjoyed by all who attended. Each character deserves special credit for their good acting. They had plenty of music, as the Centertown string band made music for them during the exercises and the brass band entertained them until the exercises began. Both bands made splendid music.

NOTES.

W. C. Wallace made a splendid "Rascal, Pat" Jo. Ford could act "Old Uncle Ned," to a "T." Harland Fought and Oscar Bishop made splendid colored girls, and Miss Bertie Williams looked very much like a bride. Mrs. Elton Wallace resembled a ladies maid very much in her white apron and cap.

"The lips that touch whisky shall never touch mine," a speech by Miss Ella Woodward, was highly complimented.

The school at this place will begin the first Monday in April, with Mrs. Elton Wallace as teacher. Also Miss Ella Woodward will begin a school at Goshen at the same time.

Mrs. Della Pirtle is visiting her parents, on No Creek.

A. M. Barnett, Kinderhook, attended the entertainment Saturday night.

John Lawton, South Carrollton, was in this community Saturday and Sunday.

Andrew Williams has returned from Evansville.

No weddings to report this time, but I think there will be soon, if "Madam Rumor" is truthful.

I will close with best wishes to the REPUBLICAN, I remain, A READER.

Judge Hoke, of Louisville, Dr. Coleman's principal opponent from Kentucky, has withdrawn from the fight for the Consulship to Havana.

Clothing and Shoes!

A wise man once said: "Hold thy tongue unless thou hast something to say." So in advertising we propose to do. But we POSITIVELY have something to say this week. We have just opened upon our counters the largest stock of the FINEST CLOTHING that we have ever shown. All NEW and in the latest STYLES of FABRIC and CUT. Our experience in the Clothing Business has taught us that we must have a large stock, so that people can SELECT as well as buy, and that we must keep the finest goods because the country is TOO well up with the times to buy SHODDY Clothing. So we propose to say to every young man who wants a fine suit that we SUIT him in price and style. So with the men and big men we are fully prepared to give them a good fit and a nice suit. Also in Child's Suits we have a special line, and at prices to suit. We need not say that we sell cheaper than anybody else, for we do not know how cheap other people sell, but we propose to every man who will give us a call that he shall be pleased with his visit whether he buys or not. "Come to see us."

In Shoes!!

Our line of CUSTOM and FINE goods is complete both for ladies and gentlemen. Never before did we show such a variety and such fine goods. This is an important trade, and the people can well afford to look at these goods before fitting themselves up. Call for Buehl's Fine Shoes for gentlemen and McIntosh Goods for ladies. We want the good Country Produce and will pay the highest market price.

Come to see us. Resp'y.

To the Public.
Our writing man is a very modest man, consequently scarcely ever talks unless he has something to say, but on going through the immense line of NEW CLOTHING just opened upon the counters of Hocker & Co., he is induced to open up to the public, and he means every word. That is, he proposes to say there shall be no extravagance in his card.
Our line of FINE CLOTHING NEW from Philadelphia and New York, we propose to say, truthfully, are superior to anything heretofore shown. We propose to invite everybody to visit this stock with a promise that everybody shall be pleased with his visit. We can promise this; we will do it. Suits from $4.50 to $25.00. Child's Suits from $1.50 to $7.00. Special Wedding Suits made to order on short notice and under "Guarantee." Mothers can fit their little boys. All we ask is a visit through our CLOTHING counters.
Our talking man, whom everybody knows is Charley Parrott, will show you through with the greatest pleasure and politeness.
Our Shoe Line is full and complete. We propose to say that no man, woman or child need go out of our house without a pair of SHOES if he wants a NEW and pretty FIT. Come in soon.
We want all the good Country Produce at good prices, but will take CASH. Respectfully,
HOCKER & CO.
Sunday School Bazaar.
I will be at Concord Schoolhouse on Sunday, the 26 inst., at 10 o'clock, a. m. for the purpose of organizing a Sunday School. I shall also endeavor to organize one at Beech Grove Schoolhouse in the afternoon at 2 o'clock. All citizens of those two neighborhoods are earnestly requested to be present and participate in the exercises. L. R. BARNETT.
One of the most popular as well as the most reliable firms in Ohio county is Hocker & Co., of Beaver Dam. They have the finest storehouse in the Green River country, barring Owensboro and Henderson, and are always prepared to accommodate the trading public. Read their "ad" elsewhere in these columns.
The young people of Central Grove neighborhood gave an entertainment last Saturday night for the benefit of the schoolhouse. A large crowd was present and some good plays were presented. The young people are to be congratulated upon their public spirit and their good acting. The public hopes to hear from them again.

KINDERHOOK.
March 22.—On the morning of the 15 this vicinity was somewhat startled to learn that Mr. Harry Moore, of Paradise, was to be wedded to Miss Lulu Milligan of this place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. McDonald, of Greenville, in the presence of a few friends. After the ceremony the happy pair left for Louisville. After a few days of pleasure they will return to Paradise where they will make their future home. May not a cloud rise to mar their happiness, is the wish of the writer.
There has been a debating society organized at Alexander schoolhouse. Let the young people attend and have an interesting debate.
Mrs. Alzien Rogers and two children are visiting her mother.
B. N. Coombs, from near Sulphur Springs, spent Saturday night in this vicinity the guest of C. H. Ellis.
S. E. Bennett has moved to his farm near here and keeping bachelor hall.
Be careful girls we may hear wedding bells ringing in the distant future.
Mrs. J. A. Anderson and little daughter are visiting her mother. Don't forget that there will be Sunday School at Alexander on the 1st Sunday evening in April at 3 o'clock p. m. Let everybody take part with us in this grand and noble work.
We had the pleasure of attending the candy breaking which was given at Mrs. Tanner's on last Saturday night.
DAISY DEANE.
Look at the Clothing and Dry Goods Man of Ohio county.

THIS IS KAHN.

BEAVER DAM.
Farmers are very busily engaged every fair day planting their early crop.

We have some sickness in our midst to report this week. Mrs. C. H. Stevens has been confined to her bed for more than two weeks with bronchial trouble. She is better at this writing. Miss Nannie Chinn and her brother, Luther, of the Liberty neighborhood, have both been very sick with the same trouble. Luther is improving; Miss Nannie is very sick. Mrs. Peters, of this place, has been very sick for several days and is not expected to live but a short while.

Dick Blankenship has accepted a position as clerk with Hocker & Co. John P. Foster, one of Ohio county's best farmers, finished delivering his tobacco here yesterday. J. H. Nave was the purchaser, paying 7 cents per pound. The entire crop weighed 12,480 pounds and was raised on seven acres of ground. This shows what a farmer can do by putting in a small crop, fertilizing and cultivating it well.

Mrs. Brown, of South Carrollton, is visiting friends in town. A. C. Hocker, of South Carrollton, is among his friends here this week. Col. I. P. Barnard, of Louisville, is in town.

L. L. Stewart, of McHenry, spent a few days with his parents and friends last week.

$100 IN GOLD FREE.
In order to induce the farmers and public to keep themselves posted upon the prices of grain, we will absolutely give away $100 in gold to the persons making the nearest guesses to closing quotations of Wheat, Corn and Oats as reported by the Chicago Board of Trade, September 6, 1893.
This desirable gift of $100 in gold will be distributed as follows:
$40 In Gold
Will be given to the nearest guess to the closing quotations as above stated.
$5 In Gold
Will be given to each of the next 12 nearest guesses on closing quotations.
The average guess on Wheat Corn and Oats gets the PRIZE. No guess taken unless on all three of the products mentioned. You should take particular care to give your guess in plain figures on every blank you record. Every customer will be furnished a blank at our store, which must be filled out and will be safely deposited, he keeping a duplicate of the same.
Contest closes Wednesday, August 23, 1893. No guesses will be recorded after that date. Other prizes to the amount of $300 will be added later on. We are giving more goods to the dollar than any other house in Grayson county, and our motto is "Give the best goods for the least money." Give us a call.

No Charge for Guessing.
Last Wednesday's quotations: Wheat, 72 1/2c @ 73c; Corn, 41c; Oats, 31c.
